Collection Scope and Content Summary
The Duncan Henderson production strip boards for THE PERFECT STORM are undated. There are four volumes holding strips of paper, each containing information about a scene for the script dated January 26, 1999. The information includes the scene, location, and cast member number (volume one includes a table of cast members). Each thinly-sliced piece of paper is mounted inside a plastic strip and was placed in shooting order in a black binder. The volumes were prepared by R. J. Mino.
