Biographical Sketch
Roger Kent was born on June 8, 1906, in Chicago, Illinois, the youngest of seven children of William and Elizabeth (Thacher) Kent. William Kent (1864-1928) was a prominent Progressive Republican who served as independent Congressman from the California First Congressional District from 1911 to 1917 and later was appointed by President Woodrow Wilson to a four year term on the U.S. Tariff Commission. Elizabeth (Thacher) Kent (1868-1952) was a leader in the women's suffrage movement.

Roger Kent attended Washington D.C. and Marin County public schools and Thacher School at Ojai, California. He was graduated from Yale in 1928 and from Yale Law School in the class of 1931. In 1930, he married Alice Cooke of Honolulu. Starting in 1931, Kent was employed as an attorney with the San Francisco law firm of Chickering & Gregory until he resigned in 1936 to become senior attorney in the San Francisco regional office of the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission. Following 3 1/2 years of service in the Navy, Kent became a partner in the new San Francisco law firm of Crimmins, Kent, Bradley & Burns in April 1946. Kent has been associated with the firm to the present with the exception of a leave of absence from March 1952 to May 1953 when he was General Counsel for the Department of Defense and, briefly, Deputy Assistant Secretary of Defense.

Kent registered in the Democratic Party in 1928 and ran for Congress in the First Congressional District in 1948 and 1950. Though not nominated, he received more votes than any other candidate on both political tickets in the 1948 primary. In 1950 he lost to the Republican incumbent after nomination. From December 1953 to August 1954, Kent was the Northern California chairman of the Richard Graves for Governor Committee and was elected chairman of the Northern California Division of the Democratic State Central Committee later in 1954.

Because of his outspoken California political leadership, Kent served an unprecedented tenure, alternating every two years as either chairman or vice chairman of the Democratic State Central Committee from 1954 to 1965. During this period, he was also active in the 1956 Presidential campaign of Adlai Stevenson, and served as state chairman of the 1960 Kennedy-Johnson campaign, Northern California chairman of the 1962 Edmund G. Brown for Governor campaign, Northern California chairman of the 1964 Johnson-Humphrey campaign and as co-chairman of the Committee to Re-Elect Governor Brown. He also served as a member of the Postmaster General’s Stamp Advisory Committee in 1961 and as chairman of the Western States Democratic Conference from 1962 to 1965.

The Kent family resides at Kentfield in Marin County, California.

Scope and Content
The collection consists of 31 boxes and 3 cartons and documents Kent's political activities for the period from 1947 through early 1974. The correspondence prior to 1954 primarily relates to his campaigns for Congress and his positions with the Department of Defense; the material for the period 1954-1965 to his leadership as head of the California Democratic State Central Committee and chairman and co-chairman of various local and state political campaigns. The correspondence after 1965 includes many candid assessments and discussions with leading local, state and national figures and political aspirants regarding a variety of liberal contemporary issues.

The collection comprises letters addressed to Kent together with copies of his replies; personalia; a diary; speeches; memoranda; photographs and portraits; clippings; and a general subject file. Most of the portraits have been removed and indexed separately in the portrait collection.

The Papers as a whole are described in greater detail in the Key to Arrangement which follows.
