Title: Marsh Family Papers,
Date (inclusive): 1815-1960,
Identifier/Call Number: BANC MSS C-B 879

Acquisition Information
Gift of the estate of Amy Gertrude Cameron, with additions from the estate of Dorothy V. Lyman, 1965.

Biographical Information
John Marsh and his wife Abigail Smith (Tuck) Marsh were early California pioneers in Contra Costa County. Their daughter, Alice, married William Walker Camron, a landowner in the vicinity of Orinda, Calif. and, later, a resident of Oakland, Calif. Alice and/or her daughter changed the spelling of their surname to Cameron.

Scope and Content of Collection
Photographs from the Marsh and Camron (Cameron) family. Collection includes large number of portraits and several photograph albums of the Marsh and Camron (Cameron) families and friends. In addition, views taken in San Francisco, Santa Barbara, Monterey, Mill Valley, Pleasanton, Auburn, Ben Lomond, Soda Spring, Calif. and other locations are present. Photos depict city views, missions, ships, camping, vacationing, and exteriors and interiors of residences. Two 1860s cartes de visite photographs by W. Dickson of Honolulu are included, picturing a grass house and poi eaters. One ambrotype (collodion positive) plate of the John Marsh home (Brentwood area, Contra Costa Co., Calif.) and numerous later views of the home and the historic marker erected are present.

Summary of portions of collection, as divided by 6 call numbers:
1963.004: Portraits of the Marsh, Tuck and Camron (Cameron) families and friends, 11 of which are cased photographs (daguerreotypes, ambrotypes and tintype).
1963.005: Album of cartes de visite portraits of the Camron (Cameron), Marsh, Tuck, and related families in California and New England, chiefly.
1963.007: Miscellaneous family photographs, including views of family homes, San Francisco Bay Area snapshots, and other California locales.
1963.008: Album and removed snapshots of Bay Area and other California locations.
