Note enclosed: R.E. Cecil, manager of West Coast Life Insurance Company in Manila for nearly 14 years, interned with 3500 other British and American citizens in Santo Tomas University, Manila, by Japanese. According to his wife, he is chairman of the sanitation and health committee, with about 500 people under him and is one of six executive committeemen operating the camp. Keeps up morale by planning entertainment. Also teaches higher mathematics. Wife last heard from him December 30, 1941 by telephone, just before Manila fell. Her brother in law Chick Parsons who returned on Grissholm (ship) had seen her husband last June 4. He also was in concentration camp. With sister and three nephews he returned here. Mrs. Cecil came on last trip of Coolidge (ship) in October a year ago with three children: Suzita Cecil, 12, Bobby Cecil, 12, Stefani Cecil, 2, and a Chinese amah. Children with their grandparents John K. Cecil and Mrs. John K. Cecil in Palo Alto. |

Includes Stuart Cox, Stan Cox and Lieutenant Commander Maurice N. Aroff at the Federal Office Building. Note enclosed: California's identical football twins chose identical careers yesterday - in the service of Uncle Sam. Guard Stu Cox and tackle Stan Cox, both of whom did right well for "Stub" Allison's football team, enlisted in the US Naval Reserve as apprentice seamen. Neither, however, will see active service in the very near future, they being considered officer material and having enlisted under the new V.7 classification which is designed to turn out a flock of ensigns in a short time. Stu and Stan have graduated from California in December at the conclusion of agricultural courses. Both wished to be farmers but they chimed in and told enlisting officer Lieutenant Maurice N. Aroff that "we have a different job to do now and, when it is done, it will be time enough to return to farming. In the meantime, both will be returned to the University of California as Naval enlisted men under pay until May when it is planned that they shall have completed a course in mathematics which will permit them to go on and study at one of several Navy schools in Annapolis. They will then be graduated with the rank of ensign if they meet all requirements. Naval medicine men were astonished at the physical similarity of the two boys yesterday. Reports were that they differed in but one respect: Stu weighed 201 pounds and his brother but 200. The boys attended high school at Patterson High School, were at Modesto Junior College for two years and at the University of California [UC Berkeley] for two more.

Orchestra leader Horace Heidt sells defense stamps at the Golden Gate Theatre. 1942-03-09 BANC PIC 2006.029--NEG
Creator/Collector: De Narie, Joe
Scope and Content Note
Includes Horace Heidt, Mrs. Horace Heidt and Sheila Macrae. Mr. and Mrs. Horace Heidt, immediately following Heidt's first appearance at the Golden Gate Theatre this morning, entered the Defense Bonds and Stamps booth in the lobby of the theatre and proceeded to sell defense stamps. One of their first customers was Sheila Macrae, shown in the photo here. The Bonds and Stamps booth was erected especially for the Heidt engagement and members of the orchestra and their wives each take their turns in selling the stamps. This is the first engagement of the Heidt band (Horace Heidt and his Musical Knights), in a new nationwide tour, which will include the selling of defense stamps in each theatre they visit.

Aviation cadets, used to speed and the sound of air whistling around them, get a kick out of late season snow sports in Sequoia National Park. Here's a group of boys (names withheld) from one of the San Joaquin Valley's air training bases, trying their hand at tobogganing. The government's ruling that all soldiers remain in uniform proved a benefit to the aviation cadets who found the heavy leather flying suits just right for tobogganing.

Copy negative of Admiral William F. Halsey, Jr., US Navy commander of the South Pacific Force, presenting the Navy Cross to Rear Admiral Willis A. Lee, US Navy, aboard a warship in the South Pacific. Admiral Lee led a task force against a Japanese force which was trying to reinforce Guadalcanal on the night of November 14-15. “He sought out and engaged,” his citation reads, “a superior enemy force and in the furious engagement which resulted, destroyed at least one battleship, three cruisers and one destroyer and injured several others and turned the enemy back. His direction of the force was conducted with great professional skill and personal daring.”

Air raid warning service in Los Angeles. 1943-08 BANC PIC 2006.029--NEG

Scope and Content Note
Headed by Governor Earl Warren, members of the California State War Council inspect the information center of the Los Angeles Air Defense Wing, Fourth Fighter Command. The party inspected the unique filter room at the center where volunteer women by use of movable terminals and indicators keep track of every plane in the air over this territory. The information is phoned to the ‘nerve center’ from observation posts indicated on the board where each flight is followed and then filtered and plotted for aircraft warning defense. Volunteer women numbering 1800 work at this 24-hour-a-day job. The party made the visit in connection with Aircraft Warning Service Week. Military officials and high state officers, including Governor Earl Warren, Sheriff Eugene Biscailuz, Lieutenant Colonel Merrick Bayer and Major Gomer Lewis, were in the party of inspection.

Italian former prisoners of war returning to Italy aboard the Alcoa Patriot (ship). 1956-01-14
Creator/Collector: Bray
Scope and Content Note
900 prisoners aboard this ship which is heading to the Panama Canal and New York en route to Europe. General Grondinger is quoted as saying "Moving these ISUs and Axis prisoners home by ship will help us get returned American soldiers home from the Pacific faster. The prisoner shipments originate in the service commands west of the Mississippi. They are coming into West Coast ports in railroad coaches which were being deadheaded (sent empty) from the East to pick up returned soldiers... by moving these prisoners and service unit troops on whips we are keeping them out of the way of the eastward rail movement of the Pacific veterans and the ships will be available in the European theater to pick up American soldiers for the trip back to the United States."

| box 894, sleeve 124471_01 | Richmond housing. 1942-12-29 BANC PIC 2006.029--NEG
Creator/Collector: Trudeau
Scope and Content Note: Includes the post office and Geraldine McCracken in a trailer. Note enclosed in sleeve: Children of shipyard workers playing in yard of emergency house built by the government. A school for them was planned but unbuilt. One of hundreds of camp areas outside city limits. Shown are trailer, tent and house. Geraldie McCracken, daughter of a shipyard worker, is standing at the door of the trailer. Despite primitive facilities, she and others like her somehow manage to appear neat and clean. This looks like a cemetery full of tombstones. The "tombstones" are concrete foundations for prefabricated houses that should have been completed a long time ago. This is the blot on Richmond's otherwise remarkable housing record. Richmond didn't want the prefabricated houses but the Federal Public Housing Authority (PHA) insisted it take them because there was an emergency need and these could be put up most quickly. Then the project got snarled in Washington red tape and has been stalled since May. The streets, sidewalks, water and sewer system and the foundations are in - have been for months - but no houses. Richmond is the place where Santa Claus came five days late to thousands of workers. The post office was swamped. Every high school boy in town was hired. Five Army trucks and a moving van were pressed into service. Yet, here Christmas packages are still being sorted for delivery on December 29. This typifies the congestion that is Richmond. |

Jake Phosi, burro pack train. 1943-01 BANC PIC 2006.029--NEG
Scope and Content Note
Jake Phosi of Roseville with his famous burros Toughy, Mocuss and Jack. Note enclosed in sleeve: Jack Phosi, for many years yardmaster for SP here and recently retired is a note authority on transportation matters. Although his life work consisted of getting freight cars through a busy rail terminal promptly, he was foresighted enough to prepare himself for any eventualities that might happen to interrupt transportation. Now that gas rationing and shortage of tires is slowing up travel by auto, he has no worries if he desires to go someplace. He has his famous burro pack train to fall back on. Of course traveling via a burro pack train is mighty slow going, but the time element means nothing to Phosi anymore, having retired from active work. Phosi's burros are well known in Northern California as they have been an attraction at many county fairs and have marched, or whatever a burro's gait is called, in parades without number. Their last public appearance was at the opening of the San Francisco-Oakland Bay Bridge. Phosi, afoot, led the animals all the way from Roseville to Oakland. The trip required five days. The pack train was laden with Roseville Roses, which were presented to the committee in charge of the opening ceremony. Phosi was highly honored here, when the rail yardman members of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen formed a separate lodge. At the first meeting it was named the Jake Phosi Lodge, B of R.T.
