Scope and Content Note: Letter from Mrs. Olive Cowell to Professor Albert Elkus, Department of Music, University of California, Berkeley. Refers to “the matter of fixing the sentence of Henry Cowell by the California Board of Prison Terms and Paroles.” Requests a letter “expressing confidence in Henry Cowell, referring to his artistic accomplishments.” |
| 2.   | February 20, 1937 | Three items: a draft of a letter, a carbon-copy of the letter, and a card containing the name of the addressee. Three leaves.
Scope and Content Note: Letter from Albert Elkus to the State Board of Prison Terms and Paroles attesting “to the fine character and the steadfastness of purpose which has characterized his [i.e., Henry Cowell] career in music.” |
Scope and Content Note: Letter from Henry Cowell to Albert Elkus thanking him for programming one of his works on a forthcoming radio broadcast on February 7, 1939. Suggests excerpts from his "United Quartet" or his "Seven Paragraphs" might be performed. References to John Edmunds (St. Edmunds), Ray Green, Mary Pasmore, Miss J. M. Beyer, and Mrs. Olive Cowell. Postscript: "P. S. Do you know the music of Lou Harrison, now at Mills College, Physical Education Department? It’s worth knowing.” |
| 4.   | February 11th, 1939 | Dated: Box 59182, San Quentin, California. Two leaves, typescript.
Scope and Content Note: Letter from Henry Cowell to Albert Elkus thanking him for including a movement from his "United Quartet" on the recent League of Composers broadcast (see above no. 3). States he "had permission" to hear the broadcast. Music performed by Ray Green and a student quartet. Reports that "Mr. and Mrs. [Percy] Grainger visited him recently.” |
Scope and Content Note: Contents: an in-depth survey of Henry Cowell’s musical activities while he was confined to San Quentin Prison since [May 26, 1936]. A most important document. |
| 6.   | March 26th, 1940 | Dated: 171 San Marcos Avenue, San Francisco, California. Two leaves, typescript.
Scope and Content Note: Letter from Mrs. Olive Cowell to Albert Elkus seeking assistance to have Henry Cowell released from prison. Enclosed is a list of activities of Henry Cowell while at San Quentin (see item 5). |
| 7.   | 1940 | Brief note lacking both a place and date. Two leaves.
Scope and Content Note: Letter from Mrs. Olive Cowell to Albert Elkus informing him that Henry Cowell has been paroled from prison and is in New York with Percy Grainger.

Scope and Content Note
Thanks to Albert Elkus for his many kindnesses during "his sojourn in San Quentin." Discusses the difficulty of some of the music published in the New Music Edition.

item 9. Dated: New York City, 61 Seventh Avenue South, April 24, 1942. 10 leaves.

Scope and Content Note
