Acquisition Information

Transferred from the Queer Resource Center.

Administrative History

The Queer Resource Center was established in 1992, but the history of gay related organizations on the Berkeley campus goes back to 1969 with the establishment of Students for Gay Power. It provided support, referral and information services for the gay community on campus, and in the course of its activities it established a library and maintained information files of interest to the gay community.

Scope and Contents Note

This collection contains the large serials files accumulated by the Center as well as a much smaller series of general information files.

Box: 1-24	Series 1. Serial files
	Series Scope and Content Summary
	A large number of the serials are from organizations in the San Francisco Bay Area, as well as other areas in California, there is a significant number from throughout the United States and even some from foreign countries. The arrangement of the collection is alphabetical by title, as received from the Center, although tabloid format publications are filed in a separate set of boxes. The bulk of the files are from the 1980s, but some are as early as 1971 and a few go into the 1990s.
