UC History Digital Archives

University Archives
The Bancroft Library
University of California
Berkeley, CA 94720-6000
Phone: (510) 642-6481
Email: bancref@library.berkeley.edu
URL: http://bancroft.berkeley.edu/collections/uarc.html
UC History Digital Archives

Collection number: Various

`University Archives, The Bancroft Library, University of California at Berkeley`

---

Descriptive Summary

Title: UC History Digital Archives
Dates: 1849-2001
Collection number: Various
Collection Size: 475 selected online items
Repository: University Archives, The Bancroft Library, University of California at Berkeley
Abstract: The University of California History Digital Archives comprises a collection of digitized historical documents, images and materials, along with past and current analysis on the history of the University of California. The original project began at the Center for Studies in Higher Education and was created by John Douglass and Sally Thomas. The goals include: one, to organize and collaborate with other efforts to preserve and provide access to archival materials; two, to provide a resource for the academic community and the general public; and three, to promote discussion on the history of the university and its future. In 2005, the project transferred to The Bancroft Library where it is now under the direction of the University Archives.

Languages: Languages represented in the collection: English

http://www.oac.cdlib.org/items/ark:/13030/c8dr30zh

Access

Collection is open for research.

Access Restrictions

Materials are for use in-library only, non-circulating.

Publication Rights

Materials in this collection may be protected by the U.S. Copyright Law (Title 17, U.S.C.). In addition, the reproduction of some materials may be restricted by terms of University of California gift or purchase agreements, donor restrictions, privacy and publicity rights, licensing and trademarks. Transmission or reproduction of materials protected by copyright beyond that allowed by fair use requires the written permission of without permission of the copyright owner. Responsibility for any use rests exclusively with the user.

All requests to reproduce, publish, quote from, or otherwise use collection materials must be submitted in writing to the Head of Public Services, The Bancroft Library, University of California, Berkeley 94720-6000. See:

Preferred Citation

[Identification of item], UC History Digital Archives. University Archives, The Bancroft Library, University of California at Berkeley.

Scope and Content of Collection

The University of California History Digital Archives comprises a collection of digitized historical documents, images and materials, along with past and current analysis on the history of the University of California. The original project began at the Center for Studies in Higher Education and was created by John Douglass and Sally Thomas. The goals included: one, to organize and collaborate with other efforts to preserve and provide access to archival materials; two, to provide a resource for the academic community and the general public; and three, to promote discussion on the history of the university and its future. In 2005, the project transferred to The Bancroft Library where it is now under the direction of the University Archives.

Selected digitized documents are available through the Online Archive of California, and are also available on the project website.

Indexing Terms

The following terms have been used to index the description of this collection in the library's online public access catalog.

University of California (System)--History