Abstract: The Joe de Kehoe Silence and the Sun Collection highlights the stories of women and Hispanic families living in California’s Mojave Desert along U.S. Highway 66 during the Great Depression. The content was generated during the course of Mr. de Kehoe’s research for his book titled, The Silence and The Sun: An historical account of people, places and events on old Route 66 and railroad communities in the Eastern Mojave Desert, California. The materials include audio cassette tapes of oral histories, digitized audio, electronic transcriptions, bound volumes, captioned photographs, and subject files.

Content Description
The Joe de Kehoe Silence and the Sun Collection highlights the stories of women and Hispanic families living in California’s Mojave Desert along U.S. Highway 66 during the Great Depression. The materials include audio cassette tapes of oral histories, digitized audio, electronic transcriptions, bound volumes, captioned photographs, and subject files.

Biographical / Historical
Joe de Kehoe is the son of a career U. S. Navy chief petty officer and grew up on and near Navy and U. S. Marine Corps bases in California, Japan, Florida, and South Carolina. Joe graduated from California State University, Northridge, in 1970 with a BS in geology and earned an MS degree in geology from San Diego State University in 1972. As a result of his geologic field work as a student that he acquired an enduring appreciation for the outdoors and love for the subtle beauty and solitude of the Eastern Mojave Desert. During a 30-year career as an international petroleum exploration geologist, working in overseas posts for Mobil Oil and Diamond Shamrock Petroleum Corp., Joe lived and traveled extensively in the United Kingdom, Europe, Southeast Asia, Africa, and India including two mountaineering trips to the Nepal Himalayas.

In 1999, Joe de Kehoe began transcribing oral history tapes for the Mojave Desert Archives, adding great value to the Oral History Program. In the early 2000s, Mr. de Kehoe began conducting oral history interviews on his own, gaining access to collections of historical photographs in private hands. His geographical focus was roughly along old Route 66 in the California Desert. This work, which spanned a decade, resulted in his writing and publishing a book titled, The Silence and The Sun: An historical account of people, places and events on old Route 66 and railroad communities in the Eastern Mojave Desert, California.

As of 2010, he is retired spending most of his free time driving back roads and hiking trails in the Rocky Mountains from his home in Estes Park, Colorado.
