David L. Lieber Biographical Note:

Dr. David Leo Lieber was a family man, a beloved rabbi and a renowned Bible scholar. Born in Poland, he came to the United States at the age of 2. He graduated from the College of the City of New York and in 1948 was ordained as a Conservative rabbi at the Jewish Theological Seminary of America (JTS), where he also received a doctorate in Hebrew literature. Dr. Lieber also pursued post-graduate studies at Columbia University, the University of Washington in Seattle, and UCLA.

Dr. Lieber served for 29 years as president of the American Jewish University (formerly University of Judaism). As president, he had helped build the University into a nationally recognized educational institution complete with an undergraduate college, graduate programs in education, Jewish studies, non-profit management, and rabbinic studies. He had also overseen the University's acquisition of its current 25-acre campus.

After he retired from the presidency, he continued to teach and to work on his new Torah commentary, Etz Hayim: Torah and Commentary, first published in 2001. Widely used in Conservative synagogues, this commentary embodies the Conservative ideals of tradition and change.

Dr. Lieber served as a congregation rabbi, was a leader in the Jewish camping movement, and received many awards from a grateful Jewish community. He published over 50 articles and mentored innumerable students and colleagues. He touched countless lives with his scholarship and with his menschlichkeit.

In a December 2008 obituary in the Los Angeles Jewish Journal, Rabbi Harold Schulweis is quoted as saying: "Rabbi David Lieber was a dear friend. In every one of his conversations, there was a compassionate and caring soul. He leaves a remarkable legacy, not only in the public arena, in his scholarship and leadership, but in the personal relationship that he had with everyone – colleagues, congregants, students and contributors." His AJU colleague and successor as president, Dr. Robert Wexler, said: "To know David Lieber was to know kindness. To know David Lieber was to know wisdom. To know David Lieber was to experience a quiet, steadfast faith in God and in the divine potential of all human beings."

February 20,
1925 Born in Stryj, Poland, and came to the United States at age two.

1944 Dr. Lieber received his bachelor of arts degree magna cum laude in 1944 from the College of the City of New York, where he was elected to Phi Beta Kappa.

He received a Bachelor of Hebrew Letters degree from the Jewish Theological Seminary of America that same year.

1945 Drs. David and Esther Lieber marry.

1947 Dr. Lieber was awarded a master's degree in philosophy from Columbia University.

1948 Dr. Lieber was ordained as a rabbi at Jewish Theological Seminary of America.

1950-1954 Dr. Lieber was a spiritual leader of Sinai Temple in Los Angeles.

Dr. Lieber served as University Chaplain for the B'nai B'rith Hillel Foundation at the University of Washington.

1951 Dr. Lieber received a Doctor of Hebrew Literature degree from the Jewish Theological Seminary. The decade Dr. Lieber spent at the Jewish Theological Seminary was an extraordinary time to be at the intellectual center of the Conservative movement, and it made a great impression on him. He studied under the tutelage of some of the foremost Jewish scholars of the time, including Talmudist Saul Lieberman, Jewish Bible scholar H.L. Ginsberg, and philosopher Mordecai Kaplan.

1954-1956 Dr. Lieber served as a Chaplain in the United States Air Force.

1955-1956 Dr. Lieber served as University Chaplain for the B'nai B'rith Hillel Foundation at Harvard University.

1956-1963 Dr. Lieber was appointed Dean of students at the University of Judaism, a position he held until he assumed the presidency.

1957-1990 Dr. Lieber was a visiting member of the Near Eastern Language Department of UCLA.

1964-1993 After 29 years of service, Dr. Lieber retired as president of the University of Judaism. He continued to teach at the university as the Flora and Arnold Skovron Distinguished Service Professor of Biblical Literature and Thought.

1982 In recognition of his work, Dr. Lieber was awarded the "Doctor of Humane Letters" degree, honoris causa, by the Hebrew Union College.

1984 Dr. Lieber was awarded the "Torch of Learning" award by the Hebrew University at Jerusalem.

1996-1998 Dr. Lieber was the first president of the Rabbinical Assembly to hail from the west coast. Dr. Lieber served on the assembly's Executive Committee and chaired its Strategic Planning Committee.

2001 Dr. Lieber was the general editor of Etz Hayim: Torah and Commentary, first published in 2001, sponsored jointly by the Rabbinical Assembly and the Jewish Publication Society.

December 15,
2008 Dr. David Lieber died at age 83 on December 15, 2008 due to a lung illness.

American Jewish University:

The American Jewish University, with its Familian campus in Bel Air, California and Brandeis-Bardin campus in Simi Valley, California, is the outcome of the 2007 union of Brandeis-Bardin Institute (BBI) and the University of Judaism (UJ).

In 1947, the University of Judaism was founded in Los Angeles, the vision of Dr. Mordecai Kaplan, the author of Judaism as a Civilization, who advocated the creation of an educational institution incorporating diverse elements of Jewish civilization and culture under one roof. To carry out his dream, he received the support of the Jewish Theological Seminary in New York and the Bureau of Jewish Education of Los Angeles.

Six years earlier, BCI was founded by Dr. Shlomo Bardin to safeguard against assimilation of young American Jews by making “the great ethical heritage of Judaism” relevant to them. Brandeis Camp Institute was named to honor our nation’s first Jewish Supreme Court Justice, Louis D. Brandeis, who was instrumental as the visionary and primary funder of Dr. Bardin’s initial programmatic endeavor. BCI was located for brief periods of time in Amherst, NH, Winterdale, PA and Hendersonville, NC before finding its home in 1947 in Simi Valley.

The Bel and Jack M. Ostrow Academic Library:

The Ostrow Library , is designed to meet the needs of the University’s faculty and students, as well as scholars conducting research in all fields of Jewish culture and civilization. Members of the general public are also invited to use the Library’s materials for personal enrichment and enjoyment. With approximately 110,000 print volumes, the library’s collections have grown consistently through endowments, gifts of major private collections and an ongoing acquisition program.

The Burton Sperber Memorial Jewish Community Library of Los Angeles:

The Burton Sperber Jewish Community Library at American Jewish University now serves as the official Jewish Community Library of Los Angeles. This new library succeeds the original Peter M. Kahn Jewish Community Library that was formerly housed at the Los Angeles Jewish Federation. Dedicated by his family in memory of noted Los Angeles philanthropist and landscape developer Burton Sperber, this library welcomes the entire Los Angeles Jewish community to enjoy its state-of-the-art facility including regularly scheduled programs for children and families as well as author and other literary encounters.

The Lowy-Winkler Family Rare Book Center:

The Lowy-Winkler Family Rare Book Center , a gift of Peter and Janine Lowy, is home to the Maslan Bible Collection. This unusual assemblage of exceptional volumes includes approximately 4,000 Bibles, some dating back almost to the inception of the printing press. This collection also features bible translations representing most of the written languages of the world, as well as the Kalman-Friedman Collection of Italian Judaica.

The University Archives:

The University Archives of the American Jewish University is a collection of documents, pamphlets, recordings, letters, publications, photographs, scrapbooks, and ephemera that document the history of the University of Judaism and the Brandeis-Bardin Institute which merged to become American Jewish University in 2007, depicting people, places and events at both campuses.

Photograph and Digital Archive:

The American Jewish University Digital Archive includes photographs, scrapbooks, and ephemera that document the history of the University of Judaism and the Brandeis-Bardin Institute which merged to become American Jewish University in 2007, depicting people, places and events at both campuses. These photographs include great Jewish thinkers who founded AJU and were involved with its growth over the years. The creation of both institutions was made possible by philanthropists to whom we owe the building of University of Judaism and the Brandeis-Bardin Institute.

Audio-Visual Archive:

The American Jewish University Audio-Visual Archive is a collection of audio-visual records of lectures, shows, and events taking place at or produced by the American Jewish University (formerly University of Judaism and Brandeis-Bardin Institute) over the years.

Louis Shub Documentation Center:

The Louis Shub Documentation Center at the American Jewish University is a collection of thousands of articles from various newspapers and periodicals covering a range of subjects. Gathered by Dr. Shub, the former library director of the University of Judaism, the collection was used by students to research subjects such as Israeli and Jewish figures, Foreign Policy, Global Jewish Communities, Israel, the Middle East and many other issues and subjects. The importance of this collection is the juxtaposing of articles from major papers with those of small local papers both covering the same event. The finding aid to the collection can be viewed at:

Subject Files - Index Cards ca. 1940-2008

Physical Description: 25 Boxes

Language: Materials are in English, German, and Hebrew

Scope and Content Note

This series contains subject file index cards created by David Lieber throughout his career. Originally stored in card cabinets, Lieber created thousands of index cards, arranged alphabetically or by topic. The index cards provide information on a wide range of subjects, including bible, religion, ethics, philosophy, prayer, writing, and more. The series contains 5 subseries:

- 7.1 Bible
- 7.2 Philosophy
- 7.3 Bibliographical References
- 7.4 Prayers and Sermons
- 7.5 Writing

Alternate Form of Material:

This collection has been digitized and is available in digital form. The cards have been divided into sections within each box and each section has been digitized into one file. Each file contains anywhere between 5-100 index cards.

Researchers interested in accessing the digital copies can contact the Archive or the Library (library@aju.edu).
