Scope and Content of Collection
Correspondence by Edna and Dorothy Deakin, who were the daughters of artist Edwin Deakin. Letters and notecards by both sisters to Mr. Lockhart Darling, on December 30, 1942; and from December 26, 1944 through October 22, 1945. The remainder correspondence from November 11, 1945 through March, 1948 were written by the surviving sister, Dorothy Deakin to Mr. Darling. Also one photograph copy print of Edwin Deakin, his wife and two daughters. 1942-1948, undated. According to the donor, Lockhart Darling was a wealthy Central Valley farmer from Fowler, California, who aided the Deakin sisters with financial support to support the Deakin California mission paintings by keeping them intact rather than sold off piecemeal.
