Descriptive Summary

Title: Union Station Collection

Dates: 1939

Collection Number: P-111

Creator/Collector:

Extent: .4 linear feet (Boxes: 1 letter)

Repository: Seaver Center for Western History Research, Natural History Museum of Los Angeles County

Abstract: Photographs of Union Passenger Terminal, Los Angeles, just after completion in 1939. Includes some shots of maintenance staff, and of the interior of the dining car and the lounge car.

Language of Material: English

Access

Research is by appointment only

Publication Rights

Permission to publish, quote or reproduce must be secured from the repository and the copyright holder

Preferred Citation

Union Station Collection. Seaver Center for Western History Research, Natural History Museum of Los Angeles County

Biography/Administrative History

Arthur Luckhaus operated a photographic studio in Los Angeles from 1926 at least through 1942, according to City Directories.

Scope and Content of Collection

Photographs of Union Passenger Terminal, Los Angeles, just after completion in 1939. Includes some shots of maintenance staff, and of the interior of the dining car and the lounge car. The photos were taken by the Luckhaus Studios. ca. 1939. See also P-228 Hoffman-Luckhaus collection.