Descriptive Summary

Title: Gladys Stanley Allard Collection
Dates: 1908-1982
Collection Number: GC 1320
Creator/Collector: Allard, Gladys Stanley
Extent: (Boxes: 1 letter; 2 ov folders)
Repository: Seaver Center for Western History Research, Natural History Museum of Los Angeles County
Los Angeles, California 90007-4057
Abstract: A small collection of photographs, yearbooks, and ephemera of a high school student in the 1920s. There are a few items from her adulthood, but most of the collection is from her high school years.

Language of Material: English
Access
Research is by appointment only
Publication Rights
Permission to publish, quote or reproduce must be secured from the repository and the copyright holder
Preferred Citation
Gladys Stanley Allard Collection. Seaver Center for Western History Research, Natural History Museum of Los Angeles County
Biography/Administrative History
Gladys Stanley moved to California from Colorado with her parents as a teen. She attended Huntington Park Union High School and later lived in Monrovia and Glendale. She married Daniel Allard.

Scope and Content of Collection
A small collection of photographs, yearbooks, and ephemera of a high school student in the 1920s. There are a few items from her adulthood, but most of the collection is from her high school years.

Indexing Terms
Huntington Park (Calif.)