Richardson Film Personalities Collection, ca. 1930s-1940s

1930-1940
Descriptive Summary

Title: Richardson Film Personalities Collection, ca. 1930s-1940s

Dates: 1930-1940

Collection Number: P-166

Creator/Collector: Ruth R. Richardson

Extent: .4 linear feet (Boxes: 1 letter)

Repository: Seaver Center for Western History Research, Natural History Museum of Los Angeles County

Abstract: Photographs of film personalities from the 1930s and 1940s.

Language of Material: English

Access
Research is by appointment only

Publication Rights
Permission to publish, quote or reproduce must be secured from the repository and the copyright holder

Preferred Citation
Richardson Film Personalities Collection, ca. 1930s-1940s. Seaver Center for Western History Research, Natural History Museum of Los Angeles County

Biography/Administrative History
Collected by Ruth R. Richardson, old-time vaudeville and circus performer, during the years (1923-1950s) she lived and worked in Hollywood, and had friends in the entertainment industry. She was the mother of the donor.

Scope and Content of Collection
Photographs of film personalities from the 1930s and 1940s.