Hoffman-Luckhaus Studio of Photography Collection, ca. 1940

1940
Descriptive Summary

Title: Hoffman-Luckhaus Studio of Photography Collection, ca. 1940
Dates: 1940
Collection Number: P-228
Creator/Collector:
Extent: .8 linear feet (Boxes: 2 letter)
Repository: Seaver Center for Western History Research, Natural History Museum of Los Angeles County
Abstract: Prints and negatives of commercial and industrial building interiors and the products of those businesses.
Language of Material: English

Access
Research is by appointment only
Publication Rights
Permission to publish, quote or reproduce must be secured from the repository and the copyright holder

Preferred Citation
Hoffman-Luckhaus Studio of Photography Collection, ca. 1940. Seaver Center for Western History Research, Natural History Museum of Los Angeles County

Biography/Administrative History
Arthur Luckhaus operated a photographic studio in Los Angeles from 1926 at least through 1942, according to City Directories. Hoffman-Luckhaus was a Los Angeles firm.

Scope and Content of Collection
Prints and negatives of commercial and industrial building interiors and the products of those businesses. See also P-111 Union Station collection.

Indexing Terms
Interior architecture.