Strong Family Collection, ca. 1880-1910

1880-1910
Descriptive Summary
Title: Strong Family Collection, ca. 1880-1910
Dates: 1880-1910
Collection Number: P-167
Creator/Collector: Harriet Williams Russell Strong
Extent: .4 linear feet (Boxes: 1 letter)
Repository: Seaver Center for Western History Research, Natural History Museum of Los Angeles County
Abstract: Family portraits, activities include pampas grass harvest in Los Nietos, California (present-day Whittier), outings in album and loose photographs.
Language of Material: English
Access
Research is by appointment only
Publication Rights
Permission to publish, quote or reproduce must be secured from the repository and the copyright holder
Preferred Citation
Strong Family Collection, ca. 1880-1910. Seaver Center for Western History Research, Natural History Museum of Los Angeles County
Biography/Administrative History
Harriet Williams Russell Strong was a rancher and an inventor after she became widowed. She was also active in the suffragette movement in Los Angeles.
Scope and Content of Collection
Family portraits, activities include pampas grass harvest in Los Nietos, California (present-day Whittier), outings in album and loose photographs.