Historical Note

The Santa Barbara Gay and Lesbian Resource Center (GLRC) was founded in the late 1970s to provide rehabilitation services for alcohol and drug abuse among the gay and lesbian community in the Santa Barbara area. It also offered community service "programs conducive to the betterment of gay and lesbian persons' self images and ability to relate to others," and supportive services to assist gay and lesbian senior citizens. The GLRC also provided AIDS-related services for people with HIV/AIDS.
