Abstract: The collection consists of three typescripts by David Hunt reporting on controversial psychology professor at California State University Long Beach, Dr. Barry Singer, who in 1982 came under fire by Evangelical Christian groups for his "tolerance of homosexuality."

Biographical / Historical

In 1982, Dr. Barry Singer, a controversial psychology professor at California State University Long Beach (CSULB), came under fire by Evangelical Christian groups for his "tolerance of homosexuality" in teaching a Psychology of Sex course, as well as accusations of having relationships with students. In addition to Singer, conservative Christian groups also targeted women's groups in CSULB for being "pro-lesbian."
