Biographical / Historical

Arthur Dale Reynolds IV was born in Santa Ana, California on February 9, 1944. Reynolds served in the United States Navy and attended US International University in San Diego, California. He worked as a development assistant for Zelda Rubinstein before working as a producer and actor in film and the Los Angeles theater community. Throughout the 1980s and 1990s, Reynolds also wrote articles on the entertainment industry for numerous gay and lesbian magazines. In 1982, he co-founded the Alliance for Gay and Lesbian Artists in the Entertainment Industry. As of 2015, Reynolds is a resident of Triangle Square, Gay and Lesbian Elder Housing in Hollywood, California.

Audiovisual material 1983-2000

Scope and Contents

This series comprises 21 audiocassettes and 1 videocassette (VHS) from Dale Reynolds. The bulk of the audiocassettes are interviews Reynolds conducted with actors, film directors, and other entertainers, as well as AIDS activists. These interviews were likely used as research for Reynold's articles for various publications. The videocassette includes news coverage of some of the first fundraisers in Los Angeles to benefit AIDS research.
