Biography/Administrative History

Kenneth MacDonald was a Hollywood actor whose career spanned the 1930s to 1972.

Scope and Content of Collection

This collection consists of about 250 film and television scripts from almost every project MacDonald acted in throughout his career. Scripts span 1939-1969. Each script was annotated by MacDonald and includes on the cover page his shooting dates, location notes, and names of producers and directors. Many scripts contain performance and character notes written in the margins. Most of the film scripts derive from his time under contract at Columbia Pictures.
