The Descriptive Finding Guide for the Dories G Gurley Photo Collection
SDASM.SC.20050

San Diego Air and Space Museum Library and Archives
2019
2001 Pan American Plaza, Balboa Park
San Diego 92101

URL: http://www.sandiegoairandspace.org/
Language of Material: English

Contribution Institution: San Diego Air and Space Museum Library and Archives

Title: Doriss Gurley Photo Only Collection

Identifier/Call Number: SDASM.SC.20050

Physical Description: 9 Photographic Prints that have been digitized and placed on the DAMS and Flickr. They have been assigned a 09 Series Numbers 09-01262 to 01271

Date (bulk): bulk

Language of Material: English

Abstract: Doris Gurley joined the U.S. Navy in 1919 aged 25. His active naval service finished in April 1946, when he retired with the rank of Captain. During World War II he commanded the naval air stations at Ottumwa, Iowa and later at Bunker Hill, Indiana

Physical Description: Photographic Prints that have been digitized and placed on the DAMS and Flickr. They have been assigned a 09 Series Number.

Biographical / Historical
Dorris Gurley joined the U.S. Navy in 1919 aged 25. His active naval service finished in April 1946, when he retired with the rank of Captain. During World War II he commanded the naval air stations at Ottumwa, Iowa and later at Bunker Hill, Indiana

Conditions Governing Access
The collection is open to research. Some restrictions may apply.

Immediate Source of Acquisition
This collection was donated to the Museum.

Subjects and Indexing Terms
Ottumwa Naval Air Station
Gurley, Dorris Dimmock

Series I: Photographs.
Physical Description: Photographic Prints that have been digitized and placed on the DAMS and Flickr. They have been assigned a 09 Series Number.