Descriptive Summary

Title: Fullerton Rotary Club Collection
Dates: 1973-2006
Collection Number: SC 2017-02
Creator/Collector:
Extent: 19 Document Boxes ; some oversized items
Repository: California State University, Fullerton. University Archives and Special Collections
Fullerton, California 92834-4150
Abstract: The Fullerton Rotary Club Collection consists of a wide variety of Rotary Club ephemera, including awards, letters, periodicals/ books, and meeting minutes.
Language of Material: English
Access
The collection is open for research. Some materials within the collection are subject to access restrictions and/or reproduction restrictions.

Publication Rights
Property rights reside with the California State University, Fullerton University Archives and Special Collections. No part may be quoted for publication without the written permission of the University Archives & Special Collections, CSU Fullerton or the copyright holder. Requests for permission to quote from these materials should be addressed to: California State University, Fullerton University Archives & Special Collections 800 N. State College, PLS-352 |Fullerton, CA

Preferred Citation
Fullerton Rotary Club Collection. California State University, Fullerton. University Archives and Special Collections

Biography/Administrative History
The Rotary Club organization was founded by attorney Paul P. Harris in Chicago, Illinois on February 23, 1905. It has since grown substantially into an international service organization. Their mission is to provide humanitarian services and promote peace around the world. It is non-religious and non-governmental. The philosophy of the Rotary Club is as follows: (1) The development of acquaintance as an opportunity for service. (2) High ethical standards in business and professions, the recognition of the worthiness of all useful occupations, and the dignifying of each Rotarian’s occupation as an opportunity to serve society. (3) the application of the ideal of service in each Rotarian’s personal, business, and community life. (4) The advancement of international understanding, goodwill, and peace through a world fellowship of business and professional persons united in the ideal of service.

Scope and Content of Collection
The Fullerton Rotary Club Collection consists of a wide variety of Rotary Club ephemera, including awards, letters, periodicals/ books, and meeting minutes.

Fullerton Rotary Club Collection Finding Aid