Biography/Administrative History
Margaret Edith Trussell was born January 21, 1928. She received a teaching credential Bachelors and Masters Degrees from UC Berkeley, a Masters in education from Long Beach State College and a PhD from University of Oregon. She was a faculty member of the Geography department at Chico State from 1966-1986. She authored six books, her research interests focused on cultural geography and land use. She was active with the Association of Pacific Coast Geographers serving as Vice President in 1984. She retired to her home in Bodega Bay, California in 1986 and died December 7, 1988.

Scope and Content of Collection
The collection consists mostly of slide which Trussell used for classroom use and as part of a simulated field trip. The rest of the collection consists of flyovers of the northern Sacramento Valley, Fortran database print outs and a folder of mining research.
