Use
Copyright has not been assigned to the Autry Museum. All requests for permission to publish or quote from manuscripts must be submitted in writing to the Autry Archivist. Permission for publication is given on behalf of the Autry Museum as the custodian of the physical items and is not intended to include or imply permission of the copyright holder, which must also be obtained by the reader.

Scope and contents
The Catherine Vesta Sturges Oficio Translation contains correspondence from Catherine Vesta Sturges to Frederick Webb Hodge, a typed Spanish transcription of a document signed by the Duke of Albuquerque 1703 October 9, and a typed English translation of the document. The transcribed and translated original document is an administrative communication or oficio. The correspondence, transcription, and translation include notes about the contents of the original document and handwritten corrections to Sturges' typed versions.

MS number
The envelope with the manuscript is labeled MS.972, but MS.972 is assigned to another collection in the archives.
