Identifier/Call Number: UA.020.001
Physical Description: 3.0 Linear Feet 4 document boxes and 1 oversize box
Date (inclusive): 1964-1991
Abstract: This collection consists of letters, office documents, posters, programs, photographs, negatives, newspaper clippings, and various audiovisual materials related to Paul Salamunovich, the Loyola and Marymount University Music and Choral departments (pre- and post-merge), and local and national choir organizations. The materials span from 1964 to 1991.
Scope and Contents
The contents of this collection document before, during, and after Salamunovich's time at the University. The collection contains many administrative correspondence and documents from the first decade of his time at LMU. This was a very busy and temoltuious time as the Music departments and Choirs at Loyola and Marymount Universities were learning how to navigate shared faculty prior to the school merger.
The collection includes many announcements, programs, and posters from performances of the Men's and Women's Choruses on campus and as a traveling performance group for tours and conferences. The many letters of congratulations in the collection demonstrate how, throughout Mr. Salamunovich's time at LMU, the chorus program became well known and renowned for their sophistication and skill. The collection also includes some materials of the preceeding Glee Club, run by William Hollenbeck, that show the work and passion that Salamunovich poured into the development of the chorus to make it locally and nationally distinguished.
Biography
Paul Salamunovich was a Professor of Music at Loyola University, and later Loyola Marymount University, from 1964-1990. Prior to his time at Loyola Marymount, he was a member of the music faculty at Mount St. Mary's College, and held positions at both St. Charles Borromeo Church in North Hollywood and St. Basil's Church in Los Angeles. He performed for Pope John Paul II at the Vatican and was honored as a Knight Commander within the Order of St. Gregory the Great. Paul Salamunovich is considered to be an expert in Gregorian chant. He studied under Robert Wagner at the Los Angeles Youth Chorus before serving as his Assistant Conductor of the Roger Wagner Chorale and later the Los Angeles Master Chorale. He was a master clinician, having been invited to conduct just under 1000 festivals and workshops around the world including four consecutive American Choral Directors Association national conventions.
