Collection Description
This collection consists of sheet music dating chiefly from the last decade of the nineteenth century and the first three decades of the twentieth century. Most of the sheet music was produced at "Tin Pan Alley," the New York street (West 28th Street) that was the center of American music and songwriting. Types of music include ragtime and songs for Broadway musicals. The collection contains a hall of fame of songwriters and songs. Composers and lyricists include Irving Berlin, Al Jolson, Clare Kummer, Ray Henderson, and George M. Cohan. A small sampling of the titles includes "You're in Style When You Are Wearing a Smile," "Over There," "That Old Irish Mother of Mine," "Tres Moutarde (Too Much Mustard)," and "Uncle Sammy, Take Care Of My Girl."
This sheet music collection was originally the personal collection of Clara Jane Nixon (1919-2013), sister-in-law of President Richard M. Nixon.
