Preferred Citation
[Box/folder# or item name], Pepperdine University Graziadio School of Business and Management Records, Collection no. 0083, Special Collections and University Archives, University Libraries, Pepperdine University.

Immediate Source of Acquisition
Materials were collected from University Archives files.

Historical note
The Pepperdine Business School was officially listed in the school catalog in 1969, replacing the Department of Business Administration and Economics. A few years after the Malibu campus opened, the school's name changed to the School of Business and Management. George L. Graziadio, Jr. endowed the Pepperdine business school in 1996, and the school was named in his honor. Multiple degrees are offered by the business school, and programs are offered on the Malibu campus as well as satellite campuses around the Los Angeles area.

Scope and Content
The collection contains printed material and photographs produced by and related to the Graziadio School of Business and Management at Pepperdine University. Items in the collection include recruitment materials such as flyers, programs, folders, posters, brochures, and booklets for its various degrees and programs; management and presidential directories; news clippings and press releases; conference lecture transcripts; event directories; management simulation manuals; a GSBM history guide written by Ruth Atteberry; administration plans; alumni publications; schedule of classes; Dean's report; event invitations and programs; photographs; magnetic tape reels; VHS tapes; microfilmed student research projects; and other printed materials. Materials in the collection range from 1968-2013.

Arrangement
The collection is arranged in the following four series: 1. Printed Material; 2. Photographs; 3. Audiovisual Recordings; and 4. Microfilm and Microfiche Student Research Projects.
