Preferred Citation
[Box/folder# or item name], Pepperdine University School of Law Records, Collection no. 0082, Special Collections and University Archives, University Libraries, Pepperdine University.
Immediate Source of Acquisition
Materials were collected from University Archives files.
Historical note
Pepperdine University School of Law began as the Orange University College of Law in Santa Ana, California, in 1964. The school was acquired by Pepperdine in 1969. By 1975, the Pepperdine School of Law received its full ABA approval and full State Bar Accreditation. In 1978, the school moved to Pepperdine's Malibu campus.
Scope and Content
The collection contains materials produced by and related to the Pepperdine University School of Law. Items in the collection include brochures for the school and its various degrees and programs; law school bulletins and announcements; materials from symposiums and conferences held at the school; invitations and programs for annual school events such as the School of Law dinner and Moot Court competition; alumni directories; photographs and audiovisual recordings of students and events; and other printed materials. Materials in the collection range from 1969 to 2014.
Arrangement
The collection is arranged in the following series: 1. Printed Materials; 2. Audiovisual Materials; and 3. Photographs.
Processing Information note
The collection was arranged and described by Jessica Geiser, Lindsey Gant, and Jamie Henricks in February, 2013. The finding aid was updated by Katie Richardson and Lindsey Gant in February, 2014. Photographs were added to the collection by Kelsey Knox in June, 2015.
