Title: Asher Vogler Collection
Creator: Vogler, Asher
Identifier/Call Number: URB.AV
Extent: 0.21 linear feet
Date (inclusive): 1935-1950
Abstract: This collection documents some of the significant events of the community of South Gate, including social and political issues affecting the city during a period of nationwide depression. Three organizations in the community reflected South Gate's concern with these issues: the Democratic State Central Committee, End Poverty League, Inc., and the Epic Club of South Gate.

Language of Material: English

Scope and Contents
The Asher Vogler Collection consists of bulletins, certificates, charter, correspondence, newspaper clippings, reports, and oversized material related to the community of South Gate. The three organizations primarily represented are: the Democratic State Central Committee, the End Poverty League, Inc., and the Epic Club of South Gate. The fourteen file folders that make up the Asher Vogler Collection are arranged alphabetically. Oversized items are located in flat files.

Conditions Governing Access:
The collection is open for research use.
