Abstract: The Stephan E. Stuart Collection briefly documents the journey of a German Jewish émigré as he travels first from German occupied France to neutral Portugal and finally to the United States. This small collection contains a broad array of documentation, including old school records, several newspaper clippings, and documentation of his military service. Materials cover the period from 1930-1979 with emphasis on the period from 1930-1945.

Language of Material: English, Portuguese, German

Scope and Contents

The Stephan E. Stuart Collection briefly documents the journey of a German Jewish émigré as he travels first from German occupied France to neutral Portugal and finally to the United States. Shortly after his 1941 arrival in the US, Stuart registered for the draft and later joined the US Army, travelling to Europe near war's end. This small collection contains a broad array of documentation, including old school records, several newspaper clippings, and documentation of his military service. Additionally there is some information regarding Mr. Stuart's import business. Materials cover the period from 1930-1979 with emphasis on the period from 1930-1945. The collection is arranged chronologically.
