Scope and Content of Collection

The Oakland Unified School District Newsletter Collection consists of 19 issues of the New Directions (1966-1969) and Urban Education (1969-1971) newsletters. The newsletters were published by the Oakland Unified School District with federal funds from the Elementary Secondary Education Act (ESEA) and featured articles and photographs of ESEA programs, school integration and busing, curriculum, scholarships, administrative news, and free lunch, ESL, and head start programs. In 1969, the title of the newsletter changed to Urban Education and was published as a newspaper insert in the Oakland Post, The Montclarion, and the Oakland-Piedmont Spectator. The newsletter featured a column, “On the spot,” by assistant superintendent William Webster and includes photographs and news articles on Oakland Superintendent of
