Scope and Contents note

This collection contains letters written by Sergeant Allen Benedict to Finetta Benedict (his sister), his mother, and the rest of his family from 1918 and 1919. They generally mention that he misses them and he gives brief descriptions of how he is doing and what the conditions are like for him. The collection includes three postcards, one correspondence, a booklet of service stamps with five remaining, and one photograph which is a portrait of Benedict in uniform. A typed and annotated transcript and letter from the donor are also included.
