Scope and Contents note
This collection contains three correspondence by United States Army Sergeant. Jack B. Kotok, writing to his aunt, Gertrude Fisher, and his cousin, Ronald Fisher [the donor]. In one letter, Kotok wrote about "Zeke" who, according to the donor, is Kotok’s brother Lester, who was killed in the invasion of Normandy. He also talked about his wife in this letter. In another letter, he referred to his high school, Sam [the donor’s father], and how Kotok’s mother was feeling after the death of Lester. Enclosed with this letter was a separate note to the donor and his brother. And the third letter is just Kotok asking about life back home.
