Scope and Contents
This is a small collection of articles, flyers, and printouts concerning the history and activities of the 24-7 Prayer Movement. 24-7 Prayer is an international, interdenominational prayer, missions, and justice movement that started with a single prayer room in 1999 and spread to one-third of the world’s nations. The founder of 24-7 Prayer, Pete Greig, recounts its history in Red Moon Rising. The collection also includes information related to Campus America, which mobilizes students on campuses across North America to pray.
