Biography/Administrative History

David Allan Hubbard (1928-1996) was the third president of Fuller Theological Seminary. Dr. Hubbard served for thirty years as President and Professor of Old Testament. His presidency is marked by significant changes in the Seminary’s culture. Beyond the academic arena, Hubbard’s addresses and sermons have been heard in churches, seminar rooms, and over the mass media. From 1969-1980, he was heard regularly on the International Radio Broadcast “The Joyful Sound,” a successor program to Charles E. Fuller’s “Old Fashioned Revival Hour.” It was heard on more than 100 stations around the world. Hubbard wrote thirty-six books, many more articles on various issues, and as dozens of entries in biblical reference dictionaries and encyclopedias. He produced commentaries such as the multivolume series Tyndale Commentaries and The Communicator’s Commentary. Hubbard also helped produce the Word Biblical Commentary series in 1982.
