24-7 Prayer Material, 1999-2010

Finding aid created by Fuller Theological Seminary-David Allan Hubbard Library Archives staff using RecordEXPRESS
Fuller Theological Seminary-David Allan Hubbard Library Archives
135 North Oakland Ave.
Pasadena, California 91182
(626) 584-5311
archives@fuller.edu
http://library.fuller.edu/library/
2019
Descriptive Summary
Title: 24-7 Prayer Material, 1999-2010
Dates: 1999-2010
Collection Number: CFT00078
Creator/Collector: Greig, Pete
Extent: 1 box, 0.5 linear feet
Repository: Fuller Theological Seminary-David Allan Hubbard Library Archives
Pasadena, California 91182
Abstract: This is a collection of articles, flyers, and printouts concerning the history and activities of the 24-7 Prayer Movement. The collection also includes information related to Campus America, which mobilizes students on campuses across North America to pray.
Language of Material: English
Access
Supervised use only
Preferred Citation
24-7 Prayer Material, 1999-2010. Fuller Theological Seminary-David Allan Hubbard Library Archives
Acquisition Information
Gift of Justin Gottuso
Biography/Administrative History
24-7 Prayer is an international, interdenominational prayer, missions, and justice movement that started with a single prayer room in 1999 and spread to one-third of the world’s nations. The founder of 24-7 Prayer, Pete Greig, recounts its history in "Red Moon Rising".
Scope and Content of Collection
The 24-7 Prayer Material collection consists of articles, flyers, and printouts concerning the history and activities of the 24-7 Prayer Movement. The collection also includes information related to Campus America, which mobilizes students on campuses across North America to pray.
Indexing Terms
Prayer -- Christianity
Student activities
Greig, Pete
Campus America