Biographical / Historical
The Wine Society of Riverside was formed in 1983. The group hosted monthly wine tastings at various locations, using a scoring system created by University of California, Davis. The group also produced a newsletter titled Monthly Re-Taste for its members. As of 2001, the Wine Society of Riverside was still active but its members communicated informally with each other and the society no longer produced a newsletter.

Scope and Contents
The collection contains newsletters from the Wine Society of Riverside, wine tasting announcements and catalogs, and information and articles about wine.

Arrangement
The collection is arranged alphabetically by folder title.
