 Auxiliary United Spanish War Veterans

Finding aid created by Roseville Historical Society staff using RecordEXPRESS
Roseville Historical Society
557 Lincoln Street
Roseville, California 95678
(916) 773-3003
http://www.rosevillehistorical.org/
2017
Descriptive Summary

Title: Auxiliary United Spanish War Veterans

Dates: 1927-1967

Collection Number: A-002.2(15)

Creator/Collector: A.U.S.W.V.Auxiliary United Spanish War Veterans

Extent: .4 linear ft: 1 notebook

Repository: Roseville Historical Society
Roseville, California 95678

Abstract: George A Marshall Auxiliary No. 67 United Spanish War Veteran's first meeting in Roseville was held in 1926. Formed mainly of all women who met two Fridays per month. The collection (notebook) includes a yearly note from past presidents, photographs, awards, veteran's death notices, history of the lodge.

Language of Material: English

Access

Available to the public during hours of operation. Appointment recommended.

Preferred Citation

Auxiliary United Spanish War Veterans. Roseville Historical Society

Scope and Content of Collection

The George A Marshall Camp Auxiliary #67 to the United Spanish War Veterans George was organized in 1926 by Mrs. Elizabeth Bass of Oakland. George A. Marshall was born enlisted in the US Navy serving most of his time on the USS Iowa and discharged at Mare Island California in 1901 due to injury in the line of duty. He had no affiliation with Roseville. No additional information regarding lodge No. 67's final meeting.

Indexing Terms

Military
Spanish American War