Biography
Assembly Member Lou Correa, Democrat, was elected to the Legislature in 1998. Correa represented Assembly District 69, which includes central Orange County and is dominated by Santa Ana in the south and stretches north to take in parts of Garden Grove and Anaheim. Tourism, small businesses, the aerospace industry, and the building and construction industry are the district's top job producers.

Correa was born in East Los Angeles on January 24, 1958, but was raised in Anaheim. He received a B.A. in Economics from California State University, Fullerton, and a M.B.A. and a J.D. from the University of California, Los Angeles. Correa worked as an investment banker, a small businessman, a realtor, a mortgage banker, and as a part-time teacher. He was a member of the California State Bar, California Faculty Association, Hispanic Chamber, Anaheim Sunrise Rotary Club, Los Amigos, and a licensed member of the National Association of Securities Dealers. He also served on the Board of Directors of the Orange County Community Development Council and the Small Business Board. He was termed out in 2004.
