Abstract: Founded in 1850, the City and County of San Francisco Sheriff Department's (SFSD) primary function is to operate the system of county jails. The SFSD also provides security and law enforcement in several locations in the city. From 1850-1890 the Sheriff Department also oversaw executions in San Francisco.

Physical Location: The collection is stored onsite.

Language of Materials: Collection materials are in English.

Conditions Governing Access

The collection is available for use during San Francisco History Center hours, with photographs available during Photo Desk hours. Collections that are stored offsite should be requested 48 hours in advance.

Publication Rights

All requests for permission to publish or quote from manuscripts must be submitted in writing to the City Archivist. Permission for publication is given on behalf of the San Francisco Public Library as the owner of the physical items.

Preferred Citation

[Identification of item], City and County of San Francisco Sheriff's Department Records (SFH 79), San Francisco History Center, San Francisco Public Library.

Provenance

The collection was obtained through two acquisitions. The first - containing materials about the jail from the late 19th and early 20th century - has an unknown provenance. The second acquisition came from Sheriff Michael Hennessey in 2011 and 2012.

Related Materials

Researchers are encouraged to see also the San Francisco Municipal Reports and the SFPL online catalog. In particular Michael Hennessey's book, San Francisco Sheriff, 1846-1861.

Conservation Note

During processing, parts of the collection were re-foldered and re-housed in acid-free folders and boxes. Some metal staples remain.

Administrative History

Founded in 1850, the City and County of San Francisco Sheriff Department's (SFSD) primary function is to operate the system of county jails where there is an average population of 2,200 inmates (as of 2016), and a number of individuals on supervised release programs.

The SFSD also provides security and law enforcement in the following locations in San Francisco: the civil and criminal courts, City Hall, the Public Library, the Emergency Communications and Dispatch Center, San Francisco General Hospital, Laguna Honda Hospital, and several public health clinics.

The SFSD is a separate organization from the San Francisco Police Department (SFPD). However, SFSD deputies and SFPD officers have all attended a Peace Officer Standards and Training (POST) mandated police academy, and are duly sworn California peace officers.

From 1850-2016, 34 elected Sheriffs have served the city. John Coffee Hays (1850) served as the first sheriff and as of 2019, Vicki Hennessy serves as the first women sheriff. From 1850-1890 the Sheriff Department also oversaw executions in San Francisco. In 1891 legislation removed that duty to the state level.
Scope and Contents
The collection is broken into two sections by date. Early materials include jail records from the late 19th and early 20th century, registers and discharge lists of prisoners, and financial records. Later jail records include reports of escapes from 1956-1981 and assaults from 1974-1981. The second portion includes materials dating to Sheriff Michael Hennessey’s terms in office (the longest tenured sheriff in San Francisco history, 1980-2012) including publicity; reports and articles collected by Hennessey; research files he collected while researching the history of the Sheriff’s Department, office papers, audio visual and graphic materials in various formats.
The collection also includes photographs including the Garden Project: a program which rehabilitated prisoners by training them to garden. The collection is strong in the late 19th early 20th century and 1956-2012, but does not have materials from 1942-1956. The collection is also significant for its records of the Mission Rebels – a community organization active from 1966-1968 – which focused on at-risk youth in the Mission.

The Mission Rebels In Action - rooted in the Mission at 674 South Van Ness Avenue - were a community organization active from 1965-1968.
