Biography/Administrative History

Historical Note: The Central Coast Queer Archive Project (CCQAP) was established in 2018 by Steven Ruszczycy working in collaboration with members of the San Luis Obispo county communities. The CCQAP is a community-based volunteer effort that documents LGBTQ+ individuals’ experiences on the California Central Coast region. The CCQAP aims to preserve documents, artifacts, and other materials related to LGBTQ+ culture and history of the central coast region. These materials will be deposited with one of a number of our archive sites, where they will be available to researchers, educators, artists, and others interested in utilizing the materials for non-commercial purposes that support the overall aims of the CCQAP.
