Scope and Content of Collection
Contains a scrapbook begun in 1902 by Walter Boyd Townsend (1875-1956). The scrapbook contains newspaper and magazine clippings, business cards, photographs and correspondence relating to his career as a traveling freight and passenger agent for the Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific, Missouri Pacific, Denver & Rio Grande, Texas & Pacific, and Western Pacific Railroads. He worked in Salt Lake City and the San Francisco Bay Area. Also contains information regarding his father, Henry Clay Townsend (1847-1908) who was General Passenger Agent for the Missouri Pacific and President of the American Association of General Passenger & Ticket Agents. Includes two letters, 1890, from Jay Gould (1836-1892) to Henry C. Townsend. There are photographs of W. B. Townsend, his travels, and his wife, and an interesting print of a theatre screen lavishly decorated with railroad advertisements. There is also a baby book for Jeanne Townsend, daughter of Walter Boyd Townsend and Leila McKillican Townsend, circa 1900.
