John Raymond letter and pamphlet

Finding aid created by California State Railroad Museum Library and Archives staff using RecordEXPRESS
California State Railroad Museum Library and Archives
111 I Street
Sacramento, California 95814
(916) 323-8073
Library.CSRM@parks.ca.gov
http://www.csrmf.org/
2017
Descriptive Summary

Title: John Raymond letter and pamphlet
Dates: Apr. 9, 1837
Collection Number: MS 356
Creator/Collector: John Raymond
Extent: 1 folder
Repository: California State Railroad Museum Library and Archives
Sacramento, California 95814

Abstract: Handwritten letter dated April 9, 1837 by John Raymond, builder of the first mile of commercial railroad track in the United States in 1828. Also an undated printed pamphlet by E.B. Callaway, entitled "America's First Locomotive," which tells the story of the "Stourbridge Lion" locomotive and the early development of the Delaware and Hudson Canal Company's railroad.

Language of Material: English

Access
This collection is open for research at our off-site storage facility with one week's notice. Contact Library & Archives staff to arrange for access.

Publication Rights
Copyright has not been assigned to the California State Railroad Museum. All requests for permission to publish or quote from manuscripts must be submitted in writing to the CSRM Archivist. Permission for publication is given on behalf of the CSRM as the owner of the physical items and is not intended to include or imply permission of the copyright holder, which must also be obtained by the reader.

Preferred Citation
John Raymond letter and pamphlet. California State Railroad Museum Library and Archives

Acquisition Information
Gift of Stephen E. Drew, 1987

Scope and Content of Collection
Handwritten letter dated April 9, 1837 by John Raymond, builder of the first mile of commercial railroad track in the United States in 1828. Also an undated printed pamphlet by E.B. Callaway, entitled "America's First Locomotive," which tells the story of the "Stourbridge Lion" locomotive and the early development of the Delaware and Hudson Canal Company's railroad.