Biography

Sally Roesch Wagner was born on July 11, 1942 in Aberdeen, North Dakota. She received her bachelor's degree in Psychology and master's degree from California State University, Sacramento (CSUS). In 1978, Wagner was one of the first people in the United States to receive a doctorate degree in Women's Studies from the University of California, Santa Cruz. Wagner helped found the Women's Studies Program at CSUS and taught Women's Studies courses at the university during the 1970s to 1981. Wagner later moved to Minnesota, where she taught Women's Studies courses at Mankato State College from 1981 to 1985. In addition, she taught classes at Fresno State University and at a research affiliate of the University of California, Davis.

Wagner is a lecturer, writer, historical performer, and historian. She has written numerous articles and books related to women and feminists. Some titles of books that she has written are Daughters of Dakota (vol. 1 and vol. 2), A Time of Protest: Suffragists Challenge the Republic, 1870-1887, Matilda Joslyn Gage biography, and The Declaration of Rights of Women: 1876. She has participated in a variety of Chautauqua events, where she portrayed Elizabeth Cady Stanton, Matilda Joslyn Gage, and Alice Pickler. She has also lectured and performed as suffragists for elementary schools and colleges throughout the country.
