Biography/Organization History

Sonoma County Reads is a community reading program that encourages residents to join together in the shared experience of reading and discussing the same book. Since 2002, Sonoma County Reads has been a community partnership between the Sonoma County Library, local public radio & TV station KRCB, the Sonoma County Museum, and many other participating County businesses, foundations, and community organizations. Each year, these programs include special author events, book discussions, and more.

Programs from 2006 through 2013 were also part of the National Endowment for the Arts' "Big Read" program.
