
Bailey Family Genealogy Research Papers

Finding aid created by Wardman Library-Whittier College staff using RecordEXPRESS

Wardman Library-Whittier College

7031 Founders Hill Road

Whittier, California 90602

(562) 907-4247

<http://www.whittier.edu/library>

2014

Descriptive Summary

Title: Bailey Family Genealogy Research Papers

Dates: 1900 - 1969

Collection Number: MS.2014.002

Creator/Collector: Bailey, G.L.

Extent: 1 Box (.5 linear ft)

Repository: Wardman Library-Whittier College
Whittier, California 90602

Abstract: The Bailey Family Genealogy Research Papers includes correspondence, newspaper clippings, typewritten notes and drawings of Bailey family members.

Language of Material: English

Access

The collection is open for research use.

Publication Rights

Authorization to publish, quote, or reproduce must be obtained from Wardman Library, Whittier College.

Preferred Citation

Bailey Family Genealogy Research Papers. Wardman Library-Whittier College

Acquisition Information

Acquisition information not available. This collection was processed by Alejandra Gaeta in March 2014.

Biography/Administrative History

G.L. Bailey served as the librarian at the public library in Ridgeville, Indiana.

Scope and Content of Collection

The collection includes G.L. Bailey's correspondence having to do with the research of different family genealogies. Included are typed and longhand written genealogies of the Bailey family, which includes Jonathan and Rebecca Bailey, some of the founding Quakers of the city of Whittier, California. There are a smaller collections of genealogies of the Sears family, Zell family, Thomas family and Payne family. A small collection of printed materials which includes newspaper clippings that are not related to the family histories are included as well.

Indexing Terms

Bailey Family Genealogy

Family histories--United States

Bailey, G.L.

Bailey Family

Ridgeville, Indiana

Genealogical Correspondence

Correspondence

Family history (Genealogy)
