Scope and Content of Collection
The materials are arranged into one series: Chronological Files. The chronological files primarily contain memoranda dealing with routine matters of the White House Press Office, such as the transmittal of information used as guidance for press briefings and correspondence concerning applications for White House press credentials. The Chronological files of Gerald Lee Warren are dated January 1971 to June 1972. During this time, Warren served as Deputy Press Secretary to the President. The bulk of the files consists of memoranda dealing with routine matters of the Press Office, such as the transmittal of information used as guidance for press briefings and correspondence concerning applications for White House press credentials. The majority of the materials are communications from Warren to Press Secretary Ronald L. Ziegler. Also included are scattered memoranda and correspondence to and from other members of the White House Staff, namely Neal Ball, Michael J. Farrell, Herbert G. Klein, Agnes M. Waldron, and J. Bruce Whelihan. An exit interview with Warren was recorded, dated October 24, 1974, upon his departure from the White House Staff.
