Scope and Content of Collection
The album of albumen prints contains 20 views of the Cambodian temple complexes of Angkor Wat and Angkor Thom and the Bayon temple. Members of an European expedition and native figures are present in several photographs. The album also contains views of Phnom Penh, Hué, and Canton, including one image of the inauguration of the Silver Pagoda in Phnom Penh (1894). Also included are two views of Egypt (sphinx, pyramids). The album has red cloth covers, and its spine is missing.

Annotations are transcribed as they appear on mounts or in negatives. A second, modern set of annotations is initialed G. L. One photograph is signed E. Gsell in the negative; two are signed Zangaki. Versos of pages are blank, except as noted.
