Descriptive Summary

Title: Frederick Hobson papers
Collection Number: 2013-18
Creator/Collector:
Extent: 2 cartons
Repository: GLBT Historical Society
San Francisco, California 94103
Abstract: Relates to the work of neighborhood, community and political activist Frederick Hobson (1950-2013). Hobson advocated on a variety of social justice issues, including the environment, affordable housing and tenants’ rights, LGBT issues, HIV/AIDS and public health policy, animal care and crime and safety in the Tenderloin.

Language of Material: English

Access
Collection is open for research.

Preferred Citation
Frederick Hobson papers. GLBT Historical Society

Acquisition Information
Gift of Michael Nulty on September 10, 2013.

Scope and Content of Collection
Relates to the work of neighborhood, community and political activist Frederick Hobson (1950-2013). Hobson advocated on a variety of social justice issues, including the environment, affordable housing and tenants’ rights, LGBT issues, HIV/AIDS and public health policy, animal care and crime and safety in the Tenderloin.

Indexing Terms
Gay men