Scope and Content of Collection
The Oracle Feminist Bookstore subject files consist of materials collected by Marilyn Shatzen while she worked at this feminist bookstore in Hayward, California. The store was operated by lesbians and was open from 1973 to 1980. The collection captures the flavor of a small city feminist bookstore during this period. The files are arranged alphabetically and contain materials related to lesbians, women and feminism. Carton 1 files range from Abortion through Homosexuality; Carton 2 contains Incest through Women’s Courses; Box 1 has Women’s Bureau through Writer’s Resources. There are articles, bibliographies, ephemera, news clippings, newsletters, papers from feminist studies classes and publications. The collection does not contain any of the bookstore’s records.
