Descriptive Summary
Title: Perry Lee Fowler papers
Dates: circa 1979-1986
Collection Number: 2014-25
Creator/Collector: Perry Lee Fowler
Extent: .2 linear feet
Repository: GLBT Historical Society
San Francisco, California 94103
Abstract: This collection includes a scrapbook kept by Perry Lee Fowler, owner of the Clip Joint, which was located above the Elephant Walk. The shop operated from at least the mid-1970s to the early 1980s. The scrapbook contains photos of Fowler, his customers and his staff person, Muriel. It also has his notes and questions regarding his diagnosis of AIDS and a hand-written draft of a letter he wrote to his brother telling him of his illness.
Language of Material: English
Access
Collection is open for research.
Preferred Citation
Perry Lee Fowler papers. GLBT Historical Society
Acquisition Information
Gift of Michael LaBrie.
Scope and Content of Collection
This collection includes a scrapbook kept by Perry Lee Fowler, owner of the Clip Joint, which was located above the Elephant Walk. The shop operated from at least the mid-1970s to the early 1980s. The scrapbook contains photos of Fowler, his customers and his staff person, Muriel. It also has his notes and questions regarding his diagnosis of AIDS and a hand-written draft of a letter he wrote to his brother telling him of his illness. The collection also contains some loose photos of the shop and the intersection of 18th and Castro, a death certificate, a receipt from the Neptune Society, and a letter from a friend.
Indexing Terms
Gay men
AIDS (disease)